S i r,

ESTABLISHMENT - Temporary - South Kanara - De-requisitioning of lands and buildings - Uppinangady Area - Special Deputy Collector - Retention for a further period of 15 days - Orders requested.

Reference: (1) G.O. No. Ms. 1819 Revenue dated 23-8-1946.-
(2) " " " 2181 Revenue dated 3-10-1946.

In G.O. No. Ms. 1819 Revenue dated 23-8-1946 the Government sanctioned the retention of the special Dy. Collector till 30-9-1946 for de-requisitioning lands and buildings in Uppinangady Area. As the volume of work remaining to be done was not much in that area, a recommendation was made in this office Ref. No. 1906-46-A8 dated 14-9- for the continuance of the special staff minus the special Deputy Collector from 1-10-1946 which was accepted by Government in their order No. Ms. 2181 Revenue (Department) dated 3-10-1946.

2. The special Dy. Collector, Sri B. Appa Swamy Chetty, B.A. could not be relieved in time as the Government first asked him not to proceed to Bellary to which division he was originally posted. subsequently, the Government in their telegram dated 8-10-1946 transferred him to Mankapur Division. Thus the special Dy. Collector could be relieved only on 15-10-1946 after-noon. As the sanction conveyed in G.O. No. Ms. 1819 Revenue dated 23-8-1946 expired on 30-9-4 the retention of the special Deputy Collector, Uppinangady from --- 1-10-1946 to 15-10-1946 has to be regularised. I therefore request that the Government may be pleased to issue early orders sanctioning the retention of the special Deputy Collector, Uppinangady for a -- further period of 15 days from 1-10-1946 to 15-10-1946.
